

1 Gos - pel truth, pro - claimed by Paul, he - rald of the earth's sal - va - tion. Light of Christ brought near to all - we, with Paul, speak with con - vic - tion.
 Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia! Al - le - lu - ia!

2
Gospel hope, proclaimed by Paul, bold apostle to the nations.
 Christ, whose death brought life for all - we, with Paul, from sleep awoken.
 Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

3
Gospel life, proclaimed by Paul, standing firm, our faithful teacher.
 Clothed with Christ, who dwells in all -
 we, with Paul, are bound together.
 Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

4
Gospel grace, proclaimed by Paul, rescues us from sin and darkness.
 Now in Christ no more to fall - we, with Paul,
 have known forgiveness.
 Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

5
Gospel light, proclaimed by Paul, shining in the face of Jesus.
 We, from Christ, have heard the call - we, with Paul, in joyful witness!
 Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Text: Edward Carter (b.1967)

Music: FENITON 78.78 and Alleluias - Sydney Hugo Nicholson (1875-1947)

May be sung to ST ALBINUS - Henry John Gauntlett (1805-76)

Honourable Mention in Level 1 (newly composed text for existing music) of the 2015

St Paul's Cathedral Melbourne 125th Anniversary Hymn Competition

Reproduced with permission